CLAREMONT DISCOURSE CELEBRATES CONSTITUTION DAY: SOCIAL MEDIA & THE FIRST AMENDMENT

September 12, 2023 | 4:15 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Founders Room, The Claremont Colleges Library

In honor of Constitution Day (typically observed on September 17), The Claremont Colleges Library is hosting a Claremont Discourse panel discussion exploring social media and the First Amendment. The panel will examine how protected speech on these platforms can create tension with content moderation that seeks to prevent the broader social harm associated with hate speech and misinformation. Also discussed will be how government restrictions on social media and other forms of behavior can serve broader political agendas. Learn more at 7clib.cc/2023ConstitutionDay.

Claremont Discourse lectures are free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be provided starting at 4 p.m.
