

10th Annual LIBRARY UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AWARD CEREMONY

Thursday, April 20, 2022 | 4:15 P.M.

PROGRAM

Welcome

Janet Bishop, A.J. McFadden Dean of the Library

Opening Remarks

Nazia Islam, Chair of the Award Committee

Presentation of Awards

LURA Committee Members: Adam Rosenkranz, Liz Galoozis, Sam Sponagle

Senior Award

Lizbeth Valdivia-Jauregui, Scripps College

La Sagrada Medicina Da La Madre Tierra:

Traditional Ancestral Preservation In

Pomona, CA Community Gardens

Faculty Sponsor: Ted Bartholomew

Junior Award

Camile Bernard, Pomona College

Community, Capitalism, and OxyContin: A

Holistic Examination of the Opioid Crisis

Faculty Sponsor: Tamara Venit-Shelton

Sophomore Award

Aidan Henrikson, Pitzer College

The Building of Warren County Democrats

Faculty Sponsor: Will Barndt

First-Year Award

Arenaria Cramer, Pomona College

William Honnold and Pomona's Legacy

of Colonial Exploitation

Faculty Sponsor: Samuel Anderson

Group Project Award

Reia Li (Junior), Pomona College

Rina Nagashima (Junior), Scripps College

Prison Gerrymandering in Arizona and

Hawaii

Faculty Sponsor: Sarah Cannon

Closing

Moderated Questions and Answers

About the Award

The Claremont Colleges Library Undergraduate Research Awards recognize the importance of the scholar's journey from initial idea to final destination. Through this award the Library celebrates excellence in undergraduate research in all disciplines. Award winners are those students whose investigation into and study of sources have made skillful and creative use of materials from the Library and beyond, and who have learned about the research process through inquiry and discovery.

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES LIBRARY