

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES

LIBRARY

SCANDINAVIAN REALMS

The Library of Waldemar Westergaard

March 4 - May 31, 2024

North Lobby Gallery, The Claremont Colleges Library

Exhibit on view during Library building hours.

Venture into the wilds of Scandinavia by exploring a curated selection of volumes from the personal collection of Professor Waldemar Westergaard, which includes more than 4,000 texts on Scandinavia and the Baltic. During your visit, you will delve into the interconnected worlds of history, cartography, mythology, travel and the Scandinavian "other" through the items on display such as books, maps and prints. We look forward to you experiencing the innumerable wonders within this exhibit and collection.

OPEN HOUSE & RECEPTION

Wednesday, March 6, 2024 | 5:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. | Founders Room

Join us for an exhibit open house and reception co-hosted by Special Collections and Archives and the Pomona College History Department. Postdoctoral Westergaard Fellow, Josh Hodil, will kick off the event by providing an overview of the Scandinavian collections at the Library and discuss the process of curating the exhibit with students in the "History of Scandinavia to 1800" course. Visitors are invited to view the exhibit and explore select materials on display in the Reading Room. Light refreshments will be provided.

This event is co-sponsored by the Pomona College Department of History with support provided by the Waldemar and Mabel Westergaard fund.

Scan this QR code or visit 7clib.cc/TCCLevents to learn more about the exhibit and open house event.

