

REMEMBERING PROF. CH'EN SHOU-YI'S LEGACY

A PANEL DISCUSSION

APRIL 3, 2024 | 4:15 P.M. - 5:45 P.M. | FOUNDERS ROOM

Built upon the rare books and historical documents featured in the Asian Library's current exhibit In Honor & Memory of Professor Ch'en Shou-yi (7clib.cc/ProfChen), this panel aims to provide more historical background on the development of Asian Studies programs and resources in liberal arts settings in the United States. This includes Professor Ch'en's role through his advocacy and scholarship, and how the books and historical documents in The Claremont Colleges Library Ch'en Shou-yi Collection have informed and can further inspire the teaching, learning and research of faculty and students at Claremont and beyond.

Learn more about the panel and its speakers by visiting:
7clib.cc/ChenPanel

Many thanks to our co-sponsors:

- Asian Library Innovation Fund
- Pomona College Asian Languages and Literature Department, Asian Studies Program, History Department, Oldenburg Center for Modern Languages and International Relations
- The M. C. Lang Fellowship in Book History, Bibliography, and Humanities Teaching with Historical Sources, Rare Book School, University of Virginia

Ch'en Shou-yi and the Development of
Asian Studies at
Pomona College
Samuel Yamashita,
Pomona College

Reflections on
Professor Ch'en
Shou-yi
Christopher C. Rand,
Independent Researcher
(Pomona College Alum)

Ch'en Shou-yi's
Contributions to the Study of Chinese
Literature in North America
David Wu, University of California, San Diego

The Ch'en Shou-yi
Collection:
Opportunities for Teaching & Research
Feng Xiao,
Pomona College

THE CLAREMONT COLLEGES LIBRARY